INSTRUCTIONS FOR APPLICATION COMPLETION

The application should be completed for each dog. The application should be completed on typewriter or in block capitals. The organizer accepts no responsibility for wrongly completed applications (wrong data about the dog). In case of uncertainties – missing enclosure, illegible application, the organizer will charge an additional fee 50 CZK to cover the administration costs, which should be paid on the exhibition entry. Unless a photocopy of Performance Certificate, Club winner certificate, National winner certificate, FCI Champion certificate or Interchampion certificate is enclosed the dog will be classified to the Open class. The photocopies will not be returned. Certificates for hunting breeds are issued by ČMKJ, Jungmannova 25, 115 25 Praha 1.

A proof of fee payment has to be stuck on the application, unless the application will not be accepted. As a proof a pay slip tally (sticked on), stamped charging order copy (enclosed), bank statement copy and Eurocheque copy (enclosed) will be accepted. A dog may be classified in one class only. Changes of the classification after the deadlines are not possible. The acceptance of a dog will be confirmed by the entrance form. By application acceptance each exhibitor is subject to all provisions of the FCI Exhibition Rule. The exhibitor agrees with the presentation of his address in the exhibition catalogue.

Condition for the Working class classification is the Performance certificate sent latest till the second deadline of the exhibition. Condition for the Champion class classification is the Champion certificate sent latest till the second deadline of the exhibition.

On line registration will be possible. For more information look at the web sites www.kchls.cz

GENERAL PROVISIONS:

The exhibition is accessible to males and females of all retriever breeds belonging to the group VIII. FCI registered in the FCI breed books, that reached the age required for the classification no later than 1 day before the exhibition day. As a second dog can be considered a dog of same owner having same address. A dog of co-owner is considered as first dog. Imported dogs have to be registered in Czech breed books and in the application form should be written the original breed book initials and registration number of the dogs' religion country. The co-owners' dogs having the registration abroad only – without the ČLP registration are considered as KCHLS non-members. The show organizer does not take responsibility for damages caused by a dog of an exhibitor, or for dog loss or death. Free running of dogs is not allowed. The Show Committee may reject an application without giving a reason. Hot females, females at advanced gravidity stages, nursing females, and individuals with operative or other interventions on exteriors are excluded from the exhibition. Changes in dog exterior done by excessive hair spraying, hair tinting and the basic trimming on the exhibition are not allowed. Owners of „BOB“ awarded dogs are obliged to participate in the final winner show. Unless otherwise stated in the instructions, the provision of the FCI International Exhibition Rule and the CMKU Exhibition Rule apply. If the show does not take place for any reasons the fees will be used for settlement of the exhibition costs. Taking puppies (with the exception of the registred puppies) is prohibited.

COMPLAINTS

Complaints against judge's decision are inadmissible. Only formal reasons of breaching the Exhibition Rule or instruction may be contested. A complaint has to be filed in written together with a bail of CZK 500 during the exhibition only. Unless the protest is found justified the bail will be forfeited for the benefit of the organizer.
